Wilson
Shock
FX

$210.00

(The Best Price on the Market)

The Wilson Shock FX Helmet incorporates their shock diffusion technology that diffuses the energy of impact in four key zones. The 4-piston design allows the mask frame to float separately from the helmet, thereby absorbing impact before the head and helmet. Outlast chin liner and Coolmax helmet liner combine to keep you cool as temperatures rise by minimizing uncomfortable hot and cold spots. This style has a panoramic cage construction increases visibility for an unobstructed view. Titanium bars on the cage reduce weight without compromising strength
